INTRODUCTION TO SEXUALITY EDUCATION FOR CHILD WELFARE PROFESSIONALS

Everyone has questions about sex, sexuality, and relationships—but for kids in foster care, finding answers from trusted sources can be challenging.

That's why we partnered with UN|HUSHED to create a training for professionals working with youth in the child welfare system. Our workshops provide strategies for sharing trauma-informed, medically accurate facts about sex and sexuality with youth.

“

The most useful part was realizing that you don't have to say everything perfectly when you begin a conversation with a youth.
